

Inverness Royal Academy and Inverness Royal Infirmary have both been established in the town of Inverness for over 200 years. The funding for these historic institutions is well recorded, and the Clan Chattan names reoccur throughout the records.

OUR SOVEREIGN LORD considering, That an humble petition has been presented to his Majesty by and on behalf of William Mackintosh Esq; Provost of the burgh of Inverness, John Mackintosh Esq; William Inglis Esq; Alexander Mackintosh Esq; and James Clark Esq; Bailies, and James Shaw Esq; Dean of Guild of the said burgh of Inverness; of Simon Frazer of Farraline Esq; his Majesty's Sheriff-depute of the county of Inverness; and of Lachlan Macgillivray Esq; William Mackintosh Esq; Thomas Frazer Esq; Alexander Frazer Esq; and Angus Mackintosh Esq; being a committee chosen by the Commissioners of Supply of the county of Inverness for superintending the management and direction of the affairs of the Academy

Provost William Mackintosh, James Shaw, Dean of Guild, Mackintosh of Drummond and Sir John Macpherson Baronet appear.

; Duncan Davidson of Esq; the Honourable of Newcastle Esq; Frazer of the island of Lord William Gordon, Duncan Davidson of Tulloch, Macgillivray of Dunmaglass and Mackintosh of Mackintosh can be seen here too.

James Grant of Redcaille Esq; Charles Grant, late of Bengal Esq; Colin Macdonald of Boisdale Esq; John Lachlan Macgillivray of Dumnaglass Esq; Aeneas Mackintosh of Mackintosh Esq; Phineas Mackintosh of Drummond Esq; Francis Humberstone Mackenzie of Seaforth Esq; Colonel Norman Macleod of Macleod, Sir John Macpherson Baronet, Sir Hector Munro of Novar, Knight of the most Honourable order of the Bath, John Ogilvie of Argyle Street in the county of Middlesex Esq; John Wedderburn of Leadenhall Street, London, Esq; James Wedderburn of the island of Jamaica Esq; and of the Reverend the Moderator and Ministers of the Presbytery of Inverness, being subscribers of fifty pounds and upwards towards defraying the expense of erecting, building and endowing the said Academy;

The Royal Warrant of 1793, seen above, which gave Inverness Academy its Royal Charter holds the names of the Directors of the Academy. The warrant includes the names of several Clan Chattan families who can also be found in the accounts for the Academy. Lachlan Mackintosh of Raigmore's subscription was used, at his request, to purchase medals for the most proficient students. The medal was inscribed "To the Royal Academy of Inverness from Lachlan Mackintosh Esquire of Raigmore in testimony of his zealous wish for its prosperity".

Raigmore's Subscription of £150. to be appropriated for annual purchase of Gold Silver Medals

Winners of medals included Davidson and Mackintosh children.

*Latin Class.
Dueses of the Classes
Benjamin Riddle
Alexander Gilson
Thomas Davidson
David Denoon
Alexander Mackintosh Aeneas Mackintosh*

Subscriptions for the Northern Infirmary at Inverness, received by Thomas Wilson Esq. Cashier to the Anno. 1798

Clan Chattan names also appear in the 1798 Treasurer's Accounts for the Royal Northern Infirmary. Donations are given from all over the UK and the world to support the first major hospital in the Highlands.

John Mackintosh Esq. Provost of Inverness,

The donations range from 21 to 52 pounds.

Duncan Davidson Esq. of Tulloch,

F. Mac Mackintosh Esq. of Mackintosh William Mackintosh Esq. of Palnupich

Some subscribers donated money every year towards the upkeep of the school.

Many more Clan Chattan names appear throughout the lists of donors and subscribers.

James Shaw Esq. of Muirtown

Phineas Mackintosh Esq. of Drummond,

Many of these names also appear on the Board of Directors.

The legacy of these donations has lasted hundreds of years and the hospital has trained many nurses.

William McGillivray Esq.

John Macpherson Esq. of New

