Hunt for the Belladrum Roman Coin Hoard!

This book belongs to

The Belladrum Roman Coin Hoard

In 2009 some 1,800 year old Roman coins were found in a field in Belladrum, close to Beauly.

In total thirty-six Roman coins were buried, together in a hoard, by an Iron Age person. They show the faces of four Roman Rulers. You can see some of the coins on display

Can you find anymore coins, hidden around the downstairs gallery? Solve the riddles and become a lost hoard hunter!

There are 5 pictures and clues hidden on the GROUND FLOOR.

You can use this booklet to write down the answers to the clues

Clue 1: I am a spiral covered stone ball, find me?

Clue 2: What weapon am I?

Clue 3: Made from bronze, I can chop down a tree. Can you find me?

Clue 4: An armlet fit for an Iron Age chief?

Clue 5: The Roman coins; how many are here?
