

Blackout Poems

THE NUCLEAR AND CAITHNESS ARCHIVES

Blackout poems are fun for all ages and can be as creative as you are.

Anything at all can be used to make one:- old books, magazine articles, comics, newspapers, even pages of text printed from the internet on your favourite hobby!

Step 1: Find a page from one of the above examples that interests you ...

Step 2: Now read the whole page ...

Step 3: Circle words that you like and list on a separate piece of paper.

Step 4: Select words from your list, without changing their order and piece them together to create the lines of a poem.

Or as you can see from these examples you can highlight the words as you go!
