

P749: RAF Stations and Other Installations during WWII

RECORDS' IDENTITY STATEMENT

Reference number: GB1741/P749

Alternative reference number:

Title: RAF Stations and Other Installations during World War Two

Dates of creation: June 2010

Level of description: Fonds

Extent: 2 CDs

Format: CD-ROM

RECORDS' CONTEXT

Name of creators: Wilson Crawford

Administrative history:

Custodial history:

RECORDS' CONTENT

Description: Images of maps, plans, photographs c.1939-1948
Research Notes 2008-2010

Appraisal:

Accruals:

RECORDS' CONDITION OF ACCESS AND USE

Access: Open

Closed until:

Access conditions:

Copying: Material derived from multiple sources and may be subject to copyright restrictions.

Finding aids: Available in Archives searchroom

ALLIED MATERIALS

Related material:

Publication:

Notes:

The Highland Council Archive Service cannot endorse or take responsibility for any information about the services of commercial companies that may be provided on this CD.

Date of catalogue:

3 Apr 2018

Ref.	Description	Dates
P749/1	Two CD-ROMs containing images and information on RAF stations and other installations in Caithness during WWII, [CD-ROM]	c.1939-c1948
P749/2	Map of Rjukan Norway site of Heavy Water Plant, subject of operation Freshman, launched from Wick, 1942	C. 2017