

SUTH – Iain Sutherland MBE Collection

RECORDS' IDENTITY STATEMENT

Reference number: SUTH

Alternative reference number:

Title: Iain Sutherland MBE Collection

Dates of creation: 1847-2010

Level of description: Fonds

Extent: 16 boxes and 1 large map folder

Format: Paper, photographs, slides, CDs, and one video tape

RECORDS' CONTEXT

Name of creators: Iain Sutherland

Administrative history: Iain Sutherland was a prolific local historian who was born in and has lived in Wick all of his life. Iain was awarded an MBE for his services to local heritage in 2006. Iain was an employee at Dounreay Nuclear Site for many years before retiring and becoming the Chairman of the Wick Society where he was fundamental in securing premises for the Wick Heritage Museum and preserving local heritage.

Iain's published works include:

- From Herring to Seine Net Fishing
- Dounreay
- The Wick and Lybster Light Railway
- Caithness 1770 – 1832
- Sinclair and Girnigoe Castle
- Whaligoe and Its Steps

Custodial history: Deposited with us by Iain Sutherland

RECORDS' CONTENT

Description: Correspondence, papers, photographs and drafts of written works of local historian Iain Sutherland MBE

Appraisal:

Accruals:

RECORDS' CONDITION OF ACCESS AND USE

Access: Open

Closed until:

Access conditions: Available within the Archive searchroom

Copying: Copying permitted within standard
Copyright Act parameters

Finding aids: Available in Archive searchroom

ALLIED MATERIALS

Related material:

Publication: See Iain Sutherland's published works

Notes:

Date of catalogue: October 2014

Ref.	Description	Dates
SUTH	Iain Sutherland Collection	1847-2010
SUTH/1	Written Works by Iain Sutherland	1980-2010
SUTH/1/1	Local History Publications	c.1980-2010
SUTH/1/1/1	Handwritten and typed draft copies of 'Vote No License' by Iain Sutherland, the true story of why Wick closed its licenced premises for 25 years [1 folder]	c.1980
SUTH/1/1/2	Handwritten manuscript with notes of 'From Herring to Seine Net Fishing' by Iain Sutherland and also a typed manuscript of the same [2 folders]	c.1986
SUTH/1/13	Handwritten and typed draft copies of 'The Wick and Lybster Light Railway' by Iain Sutherland, with some printed sources from the Scottish Record Office (now the National Records of Scotland) relating to the railways in Caithness and black and white photographs of Thrumster LMS seals [1 folder]	c.1987

SUTH/1/1/4	Drafts, proofs and notes for 'Wick and Lybster Light Railway' by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	1987
SUTH/1/1/5	Draft copy of 'Caithness 1770-1832' by Iain Sutherland with handwritten annotations [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/1/6	Handwritten manuscripts of 'Wick Harbour and the Herring Fishing' by Iain Sutherland, also some correspondence from the publisher and notes of things to be changed before going to print by both Iain and the publisher [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/1/7	Handwritten draft of 'The County of Caithness, 1800-1939 A General History' by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/1/8	Folder containing an early typed draft of 'Dounreay' and a printed copy which is in separate booklets [1 folder]	1990
SUTH/1/1/9	Handwritten manuscript of 'Dounreay' a history and account of the development of Dounreay Nuclear Plant [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/1/10	Draft of Iain Sutherland's book 'Dounreay, An Experimental Reactor Establishment' this is a typed copy with handwritten annotations [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/1/11	Typed draft of 'Dounreay' with handwritten annotations. 'Dounreay' is a history and account of the development of Dounreay Nuclear Plant written by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	August 1990
SUTH/1/1/12	'Sinclair and Girnigoe Castles' by Iain Sutherland and one coloured print of a drawing of the castles with a plan of the sections of the castles [1 booklet and 2 sheets]	c.1995
SUTH/1/1/13	Folder containing one proof of 'Whaligoe and Its Steps' by Iain Sutherland, copies of articles, hand written and printed maps of the Caithness Coastline [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/1/14	Newspaper articles written by Iain Sutherland or relating to fishing and the Sinclairs, a disc of photographs, mainly of official gatherings and presentations, and some photocopied material [1 folder]	2000
SUTH/1/1/15	Typed copy of 'I Think It Was More Or Less This Way' by Iain Sutherland, the introduction describes this work as 'about things that were of importance or interest to me during the time I was member of the	March 2010

	Wick Society... this is about things that mattered to me only...It is for my family..' this copy has handwritten notes and corrections [1 folder]
SUTH/1/1/16	Typed rough copy of 'Sinclair and Girnigoe Castles' with some pages of proofs for the lay out of the final publication [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/2	Plays	c.1980-1997
SUTH/1/2/1	Typewritten draft of 'Sleeping Dogs' by Iain Sutherland [2 folders]	c.1980
SUTH/1/2/2	Handwritten manuscript of the fictional work 'Blood Eagle' by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/2/3	Typed copy of 'The Silver Sprig' a play by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/2/4	Handwritten copy of 'The Halloween Party', handwritten and typed copies of 'The Private Adjudication of Vitamin X' and 'Bailey Bee', plays by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/2/5	Handwritten draft of 'Warhead at Falkland' by Iain Sutherland [4 notebooks in 1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/1/2/6	Copies of Iain Sutherland's plays 'the Man Who Read Treasure Island' and 'The King and His People' and two copies of a map of Wick [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/2/7	Copies of Iain Sutherland's plays 'the Halloween Party' and 'The Man Who Read Treasure Island' and a handwritten copy of 'the Halloween Party' [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/2/8	Typed copies of 'The King and His People' and 'Silver Sprig' plays by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/2/9	Typed copies of 'The Private Adjudication of Vitamin X', 'The Silver Sprig' and 'The Halloween Party' plays by Iain Sutherland, some of these pages have handwritten annotations [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/2/10	Typed copies of 'The Silver Sprig', 'Read Treasure Island' and 'King Greg 1', plays by Iain Sutherland, these have no annotations [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/1/2/11	Folders containing correspondence and some copies of plays written by Iain Sutherland, they were entered into competitions and some were performed at various theatres in Glasgow and Edinburgh. There are also some feedback reports on drafts of	1992-1995

	plays Iain sent to theatre organisations in Scotland [1 folder]
SUTH/1/2/12	Copy of 'Barley Bree', a play by Iain Sutherland with sheet music for 'Drive Them Out' by Harriet E Jones and George B. Holsinger and a letter from the BBC thanking Iain Sutherland for sending them scripts of his plays [1 folder]	1997
SUTH/1/2/13	Handwritten manuscript and typed copy of 'The King and His People, stories of the herring fishery in song verse and sketch' by Iain Sutherland, a play with three scenes [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2	Research Areas – handwritten notes and printed material	1947-2005
SUTH/2/1	Fishing and Harbours	c.1980- c.2000
SUTH/2/1/1	Volume containing 'Scottish fishing vessels requisitioned by the Admiralty for service during WWII 1939-1945' the volume contains the names of the vessels, registration numbers and details of what service they provided [1 volume]	c.1980
SUTH/2/1/2	2 editions of the 'Fishing News' and 1 edition of the 'Fish Trader' [1 folder]	1983-1984
SUTH/2/1/3	Handwritten notes and some printed sources on the fishing industry, including timeline of important dates in the fishing industry of Wick [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/1/4	Printed material relating to boat engines, radio navigation and sails, and a plan of an 18.6 meter trawler [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/1/5	Lists of boats registered in Wick, mainly in the 50's, 60's and 70's with details of type of vessel and owners [1 envelope]	c.1990
SUTH/2/1/6	Folder containing correspondence relating to various areas of research and sourcing information for these. There is also a handwritten manuscript entitled 'Wick 1757, Construction', seems to be a history of the development of Wick Harbour and Acts of Parliament that are pertinent to this [1 folder]	1995
SUTH/2/1/7	Printed sources (mainly photocopies from books) all relating to the herring industry and east coast fishing [1 folder]	c.1995

SUTH/2/1/8	Folder containing copied articles, items and handwritten notes on the fishing industry, boats registered in Wick and the harbour [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/2/1/9	Folder containing photocopied articles, handwritten and typed notes relating to the fishing industry and crofting [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/2/1/10	Folder containing copies of articles, maps, hand drawn maps, drawings relating to the coast of Caithness, lighthouses and boats [1 folder]	c.1995
SUTH/2/1/11	'The Loss of the Pennsylvania' shipping account of Danish cargo ship the Pennsylvania which was wrecked on the island of Swona in 1931 [1 folder]	c.2000
SUTH/2/1/12	Copy of the 1843 'Act to carry into effect a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French concerning the Fisheries in the Seas between the British Islands and France', and partial copy of the 1895 Bye-Laws made by the Fishery Board for Scotland [12 sheets]	1843-1895
SUTH/2/2	Whaligoe Steps and Harbour	c.1990
SUTH/2/2/1	Folder containing copies of articles, drawings, hand drawn maps and photographs largely relating to the Whaligoe Harbour and fishing [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/3	Dounreay	c.1990
SUTH/2/3/1	Printed material relating to Dounreay and correspondence regarding Iain Sutherland's research on Dounreay [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/3/2	Printed material, booklets, pamphlets and copies of original correspondence all relating to the building of Dounreay and the opening of the fast reactor in 1966 [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4	Caithness Notables	c.1986-2005
SUTH/2/4/1	Folder containing photocopies of published sources regarding agriculture and wildlife in Caithness and Scotland [1 folder]	c.1986
SUTH/2/4/2	Photocopies and typed notes and information on Alexander Bain, Inventor from Watten [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4/3	Handwritten notes on Bremner and Telford for a lecture, there are other handwritten and typed pages which relate to the historical estates of Caithness	c.1990

	dating from 1810 [1 folder]
SUTH/2/4/4	Photocopies from secondary sources, handwritten notes and correspondence all relating to research into James Bremner, engineer and wreck raiser born in Keiss [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4/5	Correspondence, photocopy of a portrait and some printed sheets regarding John Finlaison who was the Keeper of Admiralty Records from 1809-1822 [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4/6	Manuscript essay 'The Johnstons, three generations of photographers' [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4/7	Typed essay 'Eminent Caithnessmen – no. 11 Alexander Miller of 'the field' [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4/8	Handwritten notes on John Rennie (1761-1821) a civil engineer who visited Wick in 1792, a peer of Thomas Telford [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/4/9	Typed eulogy of Skipper William Thain and Pipe Major Donald Davidson, both well-known members of the community who died within 3 weeks of each other in 2005 [1 folder]	2005
SUTH/2/4/10	Handwritten transcript by Iain Sutherland of Rev. Alexander Pope's manuscript translation of "The ancient history of Orkney and Zetland corresponding the history of the Western Isles, Caithness, Sutherland, Murray and other places in Scotland" by Tormod Torfaeus, 1711. Written into a blank volume, labelled Register of Defaulters, Wick School Management Committee [1 volume]	2002
SUTH/2/5	Caithness Wildlife	1986-c.1990
SUTH/2/5/1	Correspondence and printed information relating to forests and the effects of acid precipitation and afforestation on nearby bodies of water [1 folder]	1986
SUTH/2/5/2	Handwritten list of wildlife with proper names and colloquial names [1 bundle]	c.1990
SUTH/2/5/3	Photocopies of printed sources relating to wildlife and agriculture in Caithness, specifically birds and agricultural machinery [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/6	History of Caithness	c.1970- c.1997

SUTH/2/6/1	Handwritten extracts, photocopies and typed notes relating to Caithness, including the Battle of the Orange, songs, poems and a 'Tourist's Guide to Wick' by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1970-c.1990
SUTH/2/6/2	Folder containing photocopies of original documents held by the National Records of Scotland relating to Latheron farms, crofts and their tenants. There is also handwritten notes on the Small Holding Act of 1911 and the Forse Estate in Latheron [1 folder]	c.1976
SUTH/2/6/3	Photocopies of articles about the history of banking, free masons and the radio station [1 folder]	c.1980
SUTH/2/6/4	Typed project by D. B. Miller about abandoned croft village in Latheron parish, Badryrie including map [1 folder]	c.1980
SUTH/2/6/5	Bundle of photocopied extracts from published works relating to agriculture in Scotland, there is also a record sheet which seems to be a list of correspondence [1 folder]	1986
SUTH/2/6/6	'The Highland Transport Revolution – the growth of the Highland road network 1725-1920' by E. H. L. Mackaskill [1 volume]	1988
SUTH/2/6/7	Folder relating to the 'War of the Orange' an event which took place between the fishermen of Caithness and the Highland Fisherman who came to Wick during the herring season in September 1859. The folder contains handwritten notes and printed material telling the story of the fight [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/6/8	Copy of talk given by Iain Sutherland; 'Clearance Lecture' and a discussion document for the members of the Wick Society 'Tourism in Caithness and the part that the Society can play in any future that it may have' [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/6/9	3 pages on the history of map making in Great Britain [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/6/10	Folder containing the genealogy of Prince Henry Sinclair 1379-1400 AD, discoverer of America in 1398, the chart shows his Norse and Norman descent [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/2/6/11	Folder containing two copies of a talk given by Iain Sutherland, the talk is a general talk about the history of Caithness, one of the copies has handwritten annotations and corrections [1 folder]	2000

SUTH/2/6/12	Folder containing photocopies and excerpts from newspapers, articles and some photocopies of original documents all relating to Caithness [1 folder]	c.2000
SUTH/2/6/13	Folder containing historical notes, copies of articles and some written oral histories [1 folder]	c.2007
SUTH/2/6/14	Handwritten notes on the history of the Hempriggs/Ackergill Estate [1 envelope]	n.d.
SUTH/2/7	Orkney	1947-c.1997
SUTH/2/7/1	Three copies of 'Nordlicht' a newsletter/ magazine in Norwegian and one copy of a song or poem 'The Siege O' Ducksie' [1 folder]	1947
SUTH/2/7/2	Bound volume, 'The Fishing Industry in Orkney, a course for Orcadian Studies' developed by Iain Sutherland for University of Aberdeen [1 volume]	c.1997
SUTH/2/7/3	Paperwork, notes, exam questions and coursework for 'The Fishing Industry in Orkney' course developed by Iain Sutherland for the University of Aberdeen. There are also stencils for barrel tops which were obviously used as part of the course [1 folder]	c.1997
SUTH/2/7/4	Sources used as hand-outs for the students of 'The Fishing Industry in Orkney' course developed by Iain Sutherland for the University of Aberdeen [1 folder]	c.1997
SUTH/3	Hand drawn Maps and Plans by Iain Sutherland (All of these items are found in the large map folder labelled 'SUTH/3 Iain Sutherland maps, plans and drawings' – with the exceptions of SUTH/3/34 and 35 which are on storemap 6)	1990-1998
SUTH/3/1	Seine net fishing grounds of North and East of Caithness, North Sutherland and South West Orkney from Cape Wrath to Lybster. This chart was prepared by Mr Gordon Steven, Keiss for the North Coast in addition to that prepared the men of the east coast. The main drawings are based in admiralty charts and were drawn by Iain Sutherland, Wick [4 sheets, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/2	Two maps of Eilean nan Ron (Scottish Gaelic: island of the seals, is an island near Skerry, in the north	c.1990 of Sutherland) drawn by Iain Sutherland, one of the maps is in Gaelic and the other has the place names labelled in English [1 folder, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]

SUTH/3/3	On one side of this long sheet is map of the Wick to Lybster light railway line and on the other side is a drawing of rail tracks [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/4	A large copy of a map of Caithness and Sutherland from 1744 with lots of writing detailing the archaeology of the county, the title of the map is 'To the R' Honourable the Earl of Morton. This map inscribed by his Lordships most obed' most devoted humble servant Alex'r Bryce' [1 large sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/5	Copy of map of Seine net fishing grounds on the east coast of Caithness, copyright of Iain Sutherland [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/6	Detailed coloured map of the east coast of Caithness from Sarclet to just below Clyth [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/7	Copy of 'Plan of property and proposed roads in the County of Caithness 1829' this is a colour copy and is mounted [1 large board, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/8	On one side of the sheet is a pasted together and labelled map of Wick with the crofts on the outskirts named by person who owned them and also some of the rocks are named on the coast. On the other side is a plan of Mr Sutherland's farm, unfortunately Mr Sutherland's farm does not appear on the front of the sheet [1 sheet can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/9	Map of the fishing spots on Wick River from the top of the river down to Fairy's Hill [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/10	Large copies of maps from the late eighteenth and nineteenth century of the coast and harbour of Clyth [1 bundle, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/11	Map entitled 'Dunnet Head from Dunnet Links to Ham' drawn by Iain Sutherland from information provided by George Shearer, Brough, James Henderson, Castletown and James Sutherland,	c.1990

	Dunnet', many of the landmarks are labelled along the coast [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]
SUTH/3/12	Printed plan of the coast of John O'Groats with drawings around the outside of John O'Groats buildings and landmarks and also with the story of 'Why the Sea Is Salt' which tells the tale of King Mysing who slew the Great Frodin and stole his salt mill and with the help of two enchantresses sailed with the stolen mill for Caithness [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/13	Large original of above 'Printed plan of the coast of John O'Groats with drawings around the outside of John O'Groats buildings and landmarks and also with the story of 'Why the Sea Is Salt' which tells the tale of King Mysing who slew the Great Frodin and stole his salt mill and with the help of two enchantresses sailed with the stolen mill for Caithness' [1 large sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/14	Town and harbour map of Wick with town residents labelled and also harbours labelled along the north head of Wick, n.b., the names of people are undated [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/15	Two detailed plans of Sarclet Harbour, copies from an 1843 plan [2 sheets, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/16	Drawing of the coastline of Halberry Head, Halberry Castle occupies a promontory at Halberry Head about 8 miles South of Wick and some three miles up the coast from Lybster. Sadly there are no remains visible apart from the vague footings of the keep some 18 metres back from the defensive ditch. The lack of any fragmentary ruins means that this particular site is not generally known of and yet in its day, around 1450, Halberry must have been one of the most impressive fortified structures on that coastline [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/17	Large copy of map of the estate of Strathmore in the Parish of Halkirk, 1862 [1 large sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/18	Copy of plan of Wick showing North Head, Broadhaven and Hillhead, undated but appears to be early nineteenth century [1 large sheet, can be	c.1990

	found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]
SUTH/3/19	Ordnance Survey map of the east coast of Caithness from Sarclet down to Occumster with handwritten place names and landmarks [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/20	Hand drawn coloured map of Iresgoe which is near Yarrows and Thrumster in the parish of Wick [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/21	Map of the 'clearance settlements of Achnacraig, Badbeath and part of Ousdale, completed by Iain Sutherland in March 1993 from information provided by Mr Robert Sutherland, gamekeeper at Ousdale for 43 years' [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	March 1993
SUTH/3/22	Copies of mechanical drawings of clocks and telegraph invented by Alexander Bain of Watten [1 bundle, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/23	Bundle of drawings and plans relating to the mechanisms for getting barrels loaded onto boats before hydraulics, some of these are large sheets with coloured illustrations [1 large bundle, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/24	Bundle of plans and drawings relating to Seine net fishing [1 bundle, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/25	Detailed drawing of train tracks and landscape, assumed to be from the Lybster light Railway, see SUTH/3/3 [1 large sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/26	Plan of 'The Corr, Latheron Parish, Caithness' this is a detailed plan including labelling of all sections of the dwelling and structures, it is also clear from this plan which structures are original and which were added later on [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/27	Drawing of the waterway of Gillock Burn with fishing spots marked [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/28	Copy of site plan for Keiss Harbour, undated [1 large sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/29	Copy of plan of kippering kiln , undated [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990

SUTH/3/30	Plan of the small holding of Laidhay Dunbeath [the Croft Museum, 1868 [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/31	Copy of drawing and plan of 'John Nicolson's Lighthouse, Auckengill, Surveyed and drawn by Iain Sutherland [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	February 1998
SUTH/3/32	Proofs of Iain Sutherland's book 'Wick and Lybster Railway' [1 folder, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/33	Sheet of music and words for 'Over the Ord, Welcome to Caithness [1 sheet, can be found in 'SUTH/3 large map folder]	c.1990
SUTH/3/34	Large rolled plan of Old Wick Castle, drawn in pen on tracing paper is a drawing of the outside of the structure [1 roll]	c.1990
SUTH/3/35	Three large plans and two smaller plans of Sinclair and Girnigoe Castle, drawn in pen on tracing paper, sections of the outside of the castle [1 roll]	c.1990
SUTH/4	Original Documents	1847-1960
SUTH/4/1	'The Operation of the Poorhouse System of Easter Ross, reprinted from the Inverness Courier revised and corrected by Henry Dunning MacLeod Esq' and 'List of the Poor of the Parish of Wick presently received relief from the poor funds as at 1 st January 1847' [2 items in 1 folder]	1851, 1847
SUTH/4/2	Bundle of papers relating to Mr George Christian who was a potato and meal dealer in Wick, the papers include correspondence, receipts and orders [1 folder]	1857-1884
SUTH/4/3	Hempriggs estate correspondence to Mrs Duff Dunbar relating to the hermit Tudor James. Also copy list of Hempriggs tenants to be compensated for disruption by the Wick and Lybster railway [1 folder]	1902-1911
SUTH/4/4	Contract for Convening the Mails between Wick and Berriedale, the contract agrees the terms of mail collection between His Majesty's Postmaster General and Josiah James Robertson, Motor Agent, Wick [1 item]	29 th May 1916
SUTH/4/5	Folder containing bills and receipts to John Dunnett,	1947-1960

	Builder and Contractor who lived at Smith Terrace in Wick, there is also a black and white photograph who we assume is John Dunnett [1 folder]
SUTH/5	Oral Histories (discs)	1982-2004
SUTH/5/1	David Stewart, fisherman in Wick [1 disc]	1992
SUTH/5/2	Donald Bailie was a sawyer and also a fisherman who had fished in all main Scottish ports [1 disc]	1987
SUTH/5/3	Donald Miller (known as Kite) fisherman in Wick [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/4	Woman singing a Caithness song (track 1) George Banks, general memories of living on Stroma and the other families who lived there too (track 2 and 3). James Baikie, Iain Sutherland's great uncle who was a fisherman talking about different boats at the harbour (track 4) [1 disc]	1991
SUTH/5/5	Elizabeth Begg, known as Topsy from Wick, a family of fish curers. Elizabeth was in Germany at University when WWI broke out but was allowed to travel home to the UK (track 1) Unknown woman talking with Iain Sutherland about the origins of Caithness words and place names (track 2) [1 disc]	1983
SUTH/5/6	Rab More, a fisherman from Wick, talking about boats at the harbour and work done on Wick Harbour, also describing the opening of the British Legion Club in Wick [tracks 1 and 2] [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/7	Interview with Iain Sutherland when he was the Chairman of the Wick Society, talking about the herring fishing and local Caithness customs. Later in the broadcast there is also a reading of Caithness poetry, tributes paid to Iain Sutherland as a local historian and his work with the Heritage Society and information regarding the history of fishing on Stroma. This appears to be a radio programme (tracks 1 and 2) [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/8	Jock / John Bisset in the Merchant Navy during WWII and describes his life as a seaman after the war (the second half of this interview is on disc 009	c.1990 track 1) [1 disc]

SUTH/5/9	Jock Bisset, continued from disc 008 about his life as a seaman (track 1). Nancy Anderson of Vansittart Street, Wick remembering all of the shops in Wick and Pulteneytown in the first half of the twentieth century (track 2) [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/10	James and Iain Sutherland, brothers, remembering various members of their family and anecdotes about them [disc 1 of 2]	2004
SUTH/5/11	James and Iain Sutherland, brothers, remembering various members of their family and anecdotes about them [disc 2 of 2]	2004
SUTH/5/12	Jim Bremner of Wick, one of the last fishermen to go into the herring fishing, in the army from 1915, posted at Scapa. Mainly talking about fishing and the harbour [disc 1 of 2]	c.2000
SUTH/5/13	Jim Bremner of Wick, one of the last fishermen to go into the herring fishing, in the army from 1915, posted at Scapa. Mainly talking about fishing and the harbour [disc 2 of 2]	c.2000
SUTH/5/14	Willie Thain, pioneer of the seam net fishing industry, the interview took place in a hut at the harbour while he mended nets [disc 1 of 4, listen to disc 016 first]	1983
SUTH/5/15	Willie Thain, pioneer of the seam net fishing industry, the interview took place in a hut at the harbour while he mended nets [disc 2 of 4, listen to disc 016 first]	1983
SUTH/5/16	Willie Thain, pioneer of the seam net fishing industry, the interview took place in a hut at the harbour while he mended nets [disc 3 of 4] THIS SHOULD BE LISTENED FIRST OF THE THREE WILLIE THAIN DISCS	1983
SUTH/5/17	Willie Thain, pioneer of the seam net fishing industry, the interview took place in a hut at the harbour while he mended nets [disc 4 of 4, listen to disc 016 first]	1983
SUTH/5/18	Rob Bruce, fisherman and then worked at Dounreay when it opened, talks mainly of the fishing [disc 1 of 2]	1986

SUTH/5/19	Rob Bruce, fisherman and then worked at Dounreay when it opened, talks mainly of the fishing [disc 2 of 2]	1986
SUTH/5/20	Alexander Mowat, a fisherman and shop keeper from John O'Groats, conversation is mainly about fishing around the north coast, and also fishing on and around Stroma [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/21	John Birnie of Lybster, recollections and memories of Lybster and crofting (track 1) [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/22	John Robertson of Auckengill was the Lighthouse Keeper at Noss Head, mainly talking about the Auckengill area and fishing (track 1) [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/23	Mrs Mary Ann Calder of Dunnet (Mary Ann's Cottage is a tourist attraction in Dunnet of a preserved crofter's cottage), memories of Dunnet and crofting [disc 1 of 2]	19 th August 1989
SUTH/5/24	Mrs Mary Ann Calder of Dunnet (Mary Ann's Cottage is a tourist attraction in Dunnet of a preserved crofter's cottage), memories of Dunnet and crofting [disc 2 of 2]	19 th August 1989
SUTH/5/25	Elizabeth (Lizzie) Geddes of Wick, she was the last person to drive the postal stagecoach when she was 11 years old. There is an unknown man in the conversation as well as Lizzie and Iain Sutherland, they talk mainly of memories of Wick; shops, the harbour etc. [disc 1 of 3] TRACK 2 OF DISC 29 IS THE BEGINNING OF THE INTERVIEW THEN TRACK 1 OF DISC 029 THEN DISC 026 AND FINALLY 025	17 th July 1987
SUTH/5/26	Elizabeth (Lizzie) Geddes of Wick, she was the last person to drive the postal stagecoach when she was 11 years old. There is an unknown man in the conversation as well as Lizzie and Iain Sutherland, they talk mainly of memories of Wick; shops, the harbour etc. [disc 2 of 3] TRACK 2 OF DISC 29 IS THE BEGINNING OF THE INTERVIEW THEN TRACK 1 OF DISC 029 THEN DISC 026 AND FINALLY 025	17 th July 1987
SUTH/5/27	Mrs Gunn of Wick, father was a fisherman, conversation about the fishing industry and the harbour [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990

SUTH/5/28	Mrs Gunn of Wick, father was a fisherman, conversation about the fishing industry and the harbour, some talk of old ailments and diseases and traditional cures [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/29	Elizabeth 'Lizzie' Geddes (see also discs 025 and 026) talking about driving the postal stagecoach with her father [disc 3 of 3] TRACK 2 OF DISC 29 IS THE BEGINNING OF THE INTERVIEW THEN TRACK 1 OF DISC 029 THEN DISC 026 AND FINALLY 025	17 th July 1987
SUTH/5/30	Captain Nigel Gunn of Latheron, joined the army in 1938 and was captured at Dunkirk by German forces in 1940 and spent remainder of the War in Prisoner of War camps and he talks of his experiences [disc 1 of 2]	13 th October 1992
SUTH/5/31	Captain Nigel Gunn of Latheron, joined the army in 1938 and was captured at Dunkirk by German forces in 1940 and spent remainder of the War in Prisoner of War camps and he talks of his experiences [disc 2 of 2]	13 th October 1992
SUTH/5/32	John McLeod, Alistair Henderson and Rob More in the Frances Street Club in Wick, all were fishermen and talk of the fishing industry and boats [disc 1 of 3]	c.1990
SUTH/5/33	John McLeod, Alistair Henderson and Rob More in the Frances Street Club in Wick, all were fishermen and talk of the fishing industry and boats [disc 2 of 3]	c.1990
SUTH/5/34	John McLeod, Alistair Henderson and Rob More in the Frances Street Club in Wick, all were fishermen and talk of the fishing industry and boats [disc 3 of 3]	c.1990
SUTH/5/35	John Rosie, engineer with Ross & Duchart's Engineers in Wick and afterwards an engineer at Dounreay, discussing pre-war boat engines [1 disc]	6 th November 1984
SUTH/5/36	Adam Hendry of Wick, a carter talking about shops and industry around the harbour in Wick [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/37	Adam Hendry of Wick, a carter talking about shops and industry around the harbour in Wick [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/38	Angus MacDonald, originally from Strathy but married a woman from Wick and lived in Wick, a fisherman, talking about fishing accidents and the fishing industry [disc 1 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/39	Angus MacDonald, originally from Strathy but married a woman from Wick and lived in Wick, a	c.1990

	fisherman, talking about fishing accidents and the fishing industry [disc 2 of 4]
SUTH/5/40	Angus MacDonald, originally from Strathy but married a woman from Wick and lived in Wick, a fisherman, talking about fishing accidents and the fishing industry [disc 3 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/41	Angus MacDonald, originally from Strathy but married a woman from Wick and lived in Wick, a fisherman, talking about fishing accidents and the fishing industry [disc 4 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/42	George Bethune of Dunbeath, retired fisherman. Memories of fishing and boats [disc 1 of 2]	5 th July 1986
SUTH/5/43	H Mackay and H Sutherland, talking of cholera outbreak, the clearances, Gaelic speaking in Caithness and general memories of the east of Caithness [disc 1 of 1]	c.1990
SUTH/5/44	Geordie Mackay and his wife (?) talking about fish curers, cooperages and other businesses in Wick in the early to mid-twentieth century [disc 1 of 5]	c.1990
SUTH/5/45	Geordie Mackay and his wife memories and anecdotes of life in Wick and of the fishing industry [disc 2 of 5]	c.1990
SUTH/5/46	Geordie Mackay and his wife memories and anecdotes of life in Wick, lifeboats and of the fishing industry [disc 3 of 5]	c.1990
SUTH/5/47	Geordie Mackay and his wife memories and anecdotes of life in Wick and of the fishing industry [disc 4 of 5]	c.1990
SUTH/5/48	Geordie Mackay and his wife memories and anecdotes of life in Wick and of the fishing industry [disc 5 of 5]	c.1990
SUTH/5/49	Alex Matheson of Wick, was the last cart driver in the county in 1925, talks about horses and training them for the cart [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/50	Alex Thomson, a retired fisherman from Thurso, talking about his experiences at sea – rough weather etc. [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/51	Alfred Mackay, fisherman from Wick, reminiscing about Wick, World War II and the fishing industry [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990

SUTH/5/52	Alfred Mackay, fisherman from Wick, reminiscing about Wick, World War II and the fishing industry [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/53	Angus Macintosh, talking about fishing, especially trawlers and herring (the last part of this recording has been damaged and cannot be heard) [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/54	George Sutherland of Lybster and an unknown man talking about old Caithness words and their meanings, this interview takes place outside and possibly at an agricultural auction [Track 1 of disc] Track 2 should be an interview with William Thain but the track has been damaged and cannot be heard [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/55	George Mackay, retired crofter in Buldoo, Reay. talking about life as a crofter in Caithness [disc 1 of 2]	26 th September 1986
SUTH/5/56	George Mackay, retired crofter in Buldoo, Reay. talking about life as a crofter in Caithness and about wildlife of Caithness [disc 2 of 2]	26 th September 1986
SUTH/5/57	Mrs Dolly Mackay, was the head telephonist at Dounreay from Forse, Reay. Talking about growing up in Reay [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/58	Mrs Dolly Mackay, was the head telephonist at Dounreay from Forse, Reay. Talking about growing up in Reay. Also talking about local superstitions [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/59	Pat Mackay from Forse, Latheron, a crofter and responsible for organising the Latheron Show. Talking about Caithness birds and local names for them and whiskey making. (the end of the recording has been damaged and so cannot be listened to) [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/60	Alexander Oag, veteran of World War I, talks of his experiences of the war, crofting and fishing [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/61	Alexander Oag, veteran of World War I, talks of his experiences of the war, crofting and fishing (some of track 1 and all of track 2 on this disc has been damaged) [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/62	'Aunt Babs' Barbara, aunt (mother's sister) of Iain Sutherland. Her husband was torpedoed in WW1,	c.1990

	he tells the story of her husband's war time experience. they also reminisce about older family members [1 disc]
SUTH/5/63	Lizzie Miller, Iain Sutherland's aunt (mother's sister), reminiscences of Whaligoe, crofting, fishing and older members of their family [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/64	Bobby Macleod of Westerdale, talking about crofting and family background [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/65	Bobby Macleod of Westerdale, talking about crofting, shepherding and tells the story of his brother meeting a will o' the wisp in the hills of Caithness [1 disc] There are two tracks on this disc, one has been recorded outside and is very difficult to hear.	c.1990
SUTH/5/66	Mr and Mrs Manson, kept and worked the mill at Lyth. Talking about the mill and their lives there [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/67	John Robertson of Auckengill was the lighthouse keeper at Noss Head. Talking about family history, agriculture, boats and fishing [1 disc]	11 February 1988
SUTH/5/68	Alexander Mowat of John O'Groats, fisherman and shopkeeper, talking about the fishing industry [track 1 of 2] John Rosie of Wick, engineer at Dounreay and an expert in old engines, talking about boats, engines and mechanics [track 2 of 2]	5 th November 1984
SUTH/5/69	Nan Ritchie from Portsoy, Aberdeenshire, married to photographer Frank Ritchie (Iain Sutherland wrote a book about him), talks of her husband, she was a nurse during the war and spoke about her experiences [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/70	Mr D Simpson of Stroma, a fisherman who fished all over the world. Talks about boats, fishing and the herring fishing [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/71	Mr D Simpson of Stroma, a fisherman who fished all over the world. Talks about boats, fishing and the herring fishing [disc 2 of 2] (this recording is not clear and therefore difficult to hear)	c.1990
SUTH/5/72	Mr John (Iain) Simpson of Stroma, later lived in Thurso. General family background and history, fishing, boats and life on Stroma [1 disc]	9 th April 1987

SUTH/5/73	Mr Donald Sandison of fishing curing firm Donald Sandison & Son in Wick. Talking of Mr Sandison's recollections of the fish curing and selling industry [1 disc]	8 th July 1994
SUTH/5/74	Mrs Margaret Shearer of Wick. Her recollections of being a herring girl in Wick. Mrs Shearer travelled to many of the main fishing ports in the UK as a gutter. [disc 1 of 2]	20 th November 1991
SUTH/5/75	Mrs Margaret Shearer of Wick. Her recollections of being a herring girl in Wick. Mrs Shearer travelled to many of the main fishing ports in the UK as a gutter. [disc 2 of 2]	20 th November 1991
SUTH/5/76	Mr Robbie Shearer, Wick to Inverness train driver, talking of his experiences and recollections of his career; starting off cleaning the engines and progressing to driver [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/77	Mr Robbie Shearer, Wick to Inverness train driver, talking of his experiences and recollections of his career; starting off cleaning the engines and progressing to driver [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/78	Mr Donald Sutherland of Clyth, talking about crofting and recollections of the fishing industry in Clyth [1 disc]	24 th March 1995
SUTH/5/79	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 1 of 8] Disc 081 is the beginning of the interview	10 th January 1987
SUTH/5/80	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 2 of 8] 081 is the beginning of the interview	10 th January 1987
SUTH/5/81	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 3 of 8] THIS IS THE BEGINNING OF THE INTERVIEW	10 th January 1987
SUTH/5/82	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive	10 th January

	study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 4 of 8] 081 is the beginning of the interview	1987
SUTH/5/83	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 5 of 8] 081 is the beginning of the interview	10 th January 1987
SUTH/5/84	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 6 of 8] 081 is the beginning of the interview	10th January 1987
SUTH/5/85	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 7 of 8] 081 is the beginning of the interview	10th January 1987
SUTH/5/86	Mr Donald Sutherland of Wick, conducted extensive study on Robert Louis Stevenson and the theory that there is a secret code or system of writing used by Stevenson and some of his peers. Talks of his research but also general recollections of Wick [disc 8 of 8] 081 is the beginning of the interview	10th January 1987
SUTH/5/87	Mr George Simpson of D.R. Simpson's newsagents in Wick. Mr Simpson was also in the navy in World War I. General recollections of Wick and also of his experiences during the war [disc 1 of 2] (the beginning of track 1 is a little bit muffled but the end and track 2 are of good quality)	c.1990
SUTH/5/88	Mr George Sutherland of Lybster was a shopkeeper, selling boots and shoes. Recollections of shops in Lybster in the early – mid nineteenth century and general memories of crofting and agriculture in Caithness [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/89	Mrs Mary Sutherland (widow of Hector Sutherland) of Wick, born 1892 remembers the golden jubilee of Queen Victoria in June 1897. Recollections of Caithness mills, distilleries, quarries and memories of Caithness locals. Mrs Sutherland was a great niece of Alexander Bain, inventor from Caithness. [1	1982 disc]

SUTH/5/90	Mrs Sutherland of Wick, Iain Sutherland's mother. Talking of family history of the Sutherland's and telling anecdotes of various family members. [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/91	Mrs Sutherland of Wick, Iain Sutherland's mother. Recollections and stories of her life, war time stories from World War II and memories of shops and life in Wick [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/92	Willie Sinclair of Whaligoe, a fisherman, recollections of his life at sea, the fishing industry and Caithness sea birds [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/93	George Sutherland of Lybster, memories of Lybster, family history of George Sutherland, fishing industry and also the Lybster accent and words [disc 1 of 3]	5 th September 1986
SUTH/5/94	George Sutherland of Lybster, memories of Lybster, family history of George Sutherland, fishing industry and also the Lybster accent and words [disc 2 of 3]	5 th September 1986
SUTH/5/95	George Sutherland of Lybster, memories of Lybster, family history of George Sutherland, fishing industry and also the Lybster accent and words [disc 3 of 3]	5 th September 1986
SUTH/5/96	John Sutherland, brother of George Sutherland (discs 93-95) a fisherman. Recollections of the fishing industry around Lybster [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/97	Robert Sutherland and his wife, from Latheron, Robert was the postman from 1900-1960. Recollections of locals from Latheron, family history, gaelic speakers and information on cholera outbreaks [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/98	Robert Sutherland and his wife, from Latheron, Robert was the postman from 1900-1960. Recollections of the fishing and herring industry, agriculture and some stories from his time as postmaster of Latheron [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/99	Robert Sutherland was a gamekeeper at Achnacraig and Badbea. Talking about Caithness wildlife, his work as a gamekeeper, recollection of the plane crash that the Duke of Kent was killed in on the 25 th August 1942 [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/100	Robert Sutherland was a gamekeeper at Achnacraig and Badbea. This recording is made outside, Robert is showing Iain some of the land that he was	c.1990

	gamekeeper on, they talk about the land, the gamekeepers, shepherds and agriculture [disc 2 of 2]
SUTH/5/101	Willie Tait, pioneer of the herring fishing. Talking of marks that would allow the fishermen to orientate themselves (church steeples, lighthouses and landmarks across the county etc.), sea charts, the names of rocks, points; it sounds like Mr Tait and Iain are labelling landmarks on a chart throughout the interview [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/102	Jock and Ellie Swanson of Wick, Jock was the last cooper in Wick. They talk of the fishing industry and memories of Wick [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/103	Jock and Ellie Swanson of Wick, Jock was the last cooper in Wick. They talk of the fishing industry and memories of Wick [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/104	Bloomfield's Cooperage, there is too much background noise on this disc to easily make out the speaking [disc 1 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/105	Bloomfield's Cooperage, there is too much background noise on this disc to easily make out the speaking [disc 2 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/106	Bloomfield's Cooperage, there is too much background noise on this disc to easily make out the speaking [disc 3 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/107	Bloomfield's Cooperage, there is too much background noise on this disc to easily make out the speaking [disc 4 of 4]	c.1990
SUTH/5/108	Mrs Donald Young, mother of the author of Book of Lybster by Donald A. Young from Lybster. Some family history of Mrs Young's family, recollections of Lybster and crofting [1 of 2 discs]	c.1990
SUTH/5/109	Mrs Donald Young, mother of the author of Book of Lybster by Donald A. Young from Lybster. Some family history of Mrs Young's family, recollections of Lybster and crofting [track 1] There is also a radio interview from Moray Firth radio with Iain Sutherland telling the story of the War of the Orange on the 27 th August 1859 which took place in Wick. A fight between two boys about an orange which escalated into riots between the people of Wick and the workers who came from the west coast during the fishing season, the riots had	c.1990

	their roots in the disruption of the Church of Scotland and the Free Church [track 2] There is also a radio interview from Moray Firth radio with Iain Sutherland about prohibition in Wick and Caithness in the early twentieth century [track 3] [2 of 2 discs]
SUTH/5/110	Northern Ensign Newspaper Thursday March the 27th 1879, Iain Sutherland reading an article entitled 'Agricultural Questions in Caithness' the article discusses the issues between tenant farmers and landowners [track 1] Thursday December the 6th 1883, Iain Sutherland reading an article entitled 'Action of Removing of Tenants from Ulbster estate' court case in the Sherriff Court of Wick raised by Sir Thomas Sinclair of Ulbster to have Robert Sutherland farmer at Geise Thurso and James Sutherland famer at Banniskirk removed from their holdings [track 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/111	Northern Ensign Newspaper - Iain Sutherland reading an article relating to the tenant farmers "A reduction of 10% will mean a great deal to some and nothing to small tenants..." [track 1] Iain Sutherland reading an article relating to tenant farmers "Declaring that whenever a property was burdened, to the extent say of 70-75%, it must be sold as it is very evident that a man burdened to that extent is in crisis and cannot do his duty, I may not tell you that property has its rights as well as its duties, Cheers..." [track 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/112	Newspaper Articles Northern Ensign, 5th of March 1885, 'Trawlers attacked in Pulteneytown Harbour, excitement among the fishermen. On Monday afternoon the steam trawler Royal Duke of South Shields came into Pulteneytown Harbour and moored at the north quay opposite the jetty...' [1 disc]	c.1990
SUTH/5/113	Newspaper Article, 1993 on the subject of the refrigerated fish cars that were being run by the fish league in London from Wick to London. [1 disc]	1993
SUTH/5/114	Fishing News Article, August 1954, article entitled "How will fair cry affect the fish monger" large ships able to bring back tonnes of frozen fish and how this would affect the fish mongers in the UK [1 disc]	October 1984

SUTH/5/115	Fishing News Article, 9 th July 1921, article on fishing nets, descriptions [1 disk]	October 1984
SUTH/5/116	Donnie Harold of Lower Reiss, crofter. Discussing the development of farm machinery and agriculture [disc 1 of 2]	August 2003
SUTH/5/117	Donnie Harold of Lower Reiss, crofter. Discussing the development of farm machinery and agriculture [disc 2 of 2]	August 2003
SUTH/5/118	Jasper McKain, cabinet maker from Wick. Recollections of Wick town, the shops and who lived where in the town from about 1910 [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/119	Jasper McKain, cabinet maker from Wick. Recollections of Wick town, the shops and who lived where in the town from about 1910 [disc 2 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/120	Unknown man being interviewed by a woman and talking about agriculture and crofting, and some tales of fishing. He also talks of people and places, possibly from North Ronaldsy [disc 1 of 2]	c.1990
SUTH/5/121	Unknown man being interviewed by a woman and talking about agriculture and crofting, and some tales of fishing. He also talks of people and places, possibly from North Ronaldsay [disc 2 of 2]
SUTH/5/122	Transcripts and summaries of some of Iain's interviews with Caithnessians; Summaries: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Adam Hendry, Carter 15th May 1980 - Angus MacDonald, Fisherman - Donald Miller, cook in Alexandra, Russia in 1908 and later a fisherman - Jock and Cellie Swanson, September 1987, worked in mills and cooperages - John Rosie of Bruce and Duchart, 10th November 1984, ship building - Mrs Shearer, 20th November 1991, gutter in all of the major ports in the UK - Willie Thain, 4th October 1983, fisherman, how fishing evolved over the years Transcript <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Full transcript of Iain's interview with Mary Ann Calder, crofter 	c.1995

	[1 folder]
SUTH/5/123	Box of audiocassettes, originals of P/SUTH/5/1-121 [1 box]	1982-2004
SUTH/5/124	Cassette tape, interview with Neil Harrold, retired butcher aged 94, not yet digitised [1 audiotape]	2012
SUTH/6	Photographs and Slides	c.1950-2000
SUTH/6/1	Black and white photographs from Iain's time working at Dounreay, one photograph looks to be from the Johnston Collection of Wick Harbour and one photograph from Operation Snowdrop in 1955 (more photos of this can be found in P807/11) [1 folder]	c.1950's
SUTH/6/2	Photographs all relating to Dounreay, mainly people, events and some photos of the reactors [1 folder]	c.1950's
SUTH/6/3/1	Peat cutters at work, each man with a tusker assisted by three women. Originally from John E Donaldson (Jack), 19 Thurso Street Wick. [6 landscape A5 black and white photographs]	C.1930
SUTH/6/3/2	Group of Herring gutter lassies smiling for the camera. Group of Herring gutter lassies and lad having a laugh at work. Group of Boys Brigade physical activity display team with band in the back ground, possibly at Rosebank. View of the mining camp at Kildonan. "Taking home the peats" couple with their horse drawn cart taking home the peats, north Sutherland. Photograph of a Tusker. [7 large portrait black and white photographs]	C. 1930
SUTH/6/3/3	Group of men unloading salt cargo into barrels in the hold of a ship, possibly on the Rimsdale. Two photographs of the ship Rimsdale. One photograph unloading cargo of bricks, lorry waiting by quayside. [4 small landscape black and white photographs and 2 portrait black and white photograph]	C. 1930
SUTH/6/3/4	Pavilion Cinema Wick, Opening showing of Neil Gunns "Silver Darlings" film. Wick Girls Pipe Band playing on the balcony. Group Photographs of crowds queuing to get in and dignitaries standing in the doorway. [4 landscape Black and White photographs]	C. late 1940's
SUTH/6/3/5	group of men in a small boat moored off a pier in	C. 1950

	Wick harbour. Boat contains two divers [3 black and white landscape photographs]
SUTH/6/3/6	Group Military photographs taken outside Wick High School, Miller Avenue and one other unknown location [3 small black and white landscape photographs, 2 larger landscape black and white photographs]	C.1950
SUTH/6/3/7	Fisherman holding upright a whales jaw bone. Small crowd in the background. [2 black and white portrait photograph]	C.1930
SUTH/6/3/8	“The Bulletin” Holiday snap competition ,Elizabeth Donaldson, 19 Thurso Street wick. Small picture of pony and trap with a family on board [1 small landscape black and white photograph]	14 July 1939
SUTH/6/3/9	Group photo of men sitting on the fish barrels. [1 small landscape black and white photograph]	C. 1920
SUTH/6/3/10	Herring Queen and court including matron and nurses outside Rosebank house dated 1939 ? Group of men dredging the Wick River Tramp art on Wick bridge. Elderly man and his dog with painting that appear to have been done on waterlogged plywood? He possibly lived in one of the caves per local knowledge. [3 large and 2 small black and white landscape photographs]	C. 1930
SUTH/6/3/11	View of Wick High street looking north towards Templetons. View of Wick Council Buildings by John Adams photography Wick, [2 landscape Black and white photographs]	C.1970
SUTH/6/4	One slide of a postage stamp [1 slide in envelope]	c.1980
SUTH/6/5	5 black and white photographs, 2 of Iain Sutherland at Dounreay, 1 of a man in military uniform, 1 of A M Finlayson’s shop (jeweller) and 1 of the Milton, Auckengill [1 envelope]	c.1980
SUTH/6/6	Photographs of boats, harbours, Whaligoe steps, Professor William Carmichael McIntosh, engines and machinery all relating to boats and harbours [1 folder]	c.1990
SUTH/6/7	Folder containing some photographs of old croft buildings in Caithness, one photograph of a fishing boat, drawings by Iain Sutherland of the structure of the old Castle of Wick and the cliff it sits on and also	c.1990

	a printed article about the Old Castle (the Old Man of Wick) [1 folder]
SUTH/6/8	Packet of photographs, some of Reiss Beach, Caithness countryside, landmarks and structures around the county and large seals for imprinting on barrels [1 packet]	1993
SUTH/6/9	Packet of photographs, some of Wick Harbour [1 packet with photographs and negatives]	c.1995
SUTH/6/10	Packet of photographs of men (including Iain Sutherland) working on a bridge across a small burn and working on a dry stone wall – this could be at the edge of Wick near to the Trinkie and the Old Castle of Wick [1 packet of photographs and negatives]	c.1995
SUTH/6/11	Photographs of buildings in Caithness, churches and hotels and houses [1 envelope with negatives]	c.1995
SUTH/6/12	Photographs which could be of a town and harbour on Orkney [1 packet]	c.1995
SUTH/6/13	Packet of photographs mainly of Thurso and Dounreay Nuclear Plant [1 packet]	c.1995
SUTH/6/14	Folder containing photographs which are largely of Caithness landscapes [1 folder]	c.2000
SUTH/6/15	Folder containing photographs which are largely of Caithness landscapes [1 folder]	c.2000
SUTH/6/16	Slides of birds and flowers [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/17	Box labelled 'CLEARANCES' [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/18	Box labelled 'WEST SIDE CROFT' [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/19	Box labelled 'AGRICULTURE', these seem to be landscapes [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/20	Box of 16 slides with no label [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/21	Box of slides, some of these appear to be of buildings and possibly war memorials [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/22	Box of slides with no label [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/23	Box of slides with no label, but there is a list of the slides on the inside, these are mainly of streets and buildings in Caithness [1 box of slides]	c.1990

SUTH/6/24	Box labelled 'BAIN LECTURE SLIDES', there is a list on the inside of the box with details of each slide, which appears to be accurate and includes photographs of clocks made by Alexander Bain and diagrams of his inventions [1 wooden box of slides] (slide 2 is missing)	c.1990
SUTH/6/25	Box labelled 'TELFORD AND BREMNER' [box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/26	Box of slides with no label [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/6/27	Unlabelled box of slides, however there is a list on the inside of the box which seems to be accurate [1 box of slides]	c.1990
SUTH/7	Correspondence	1970-2008
SUTH/7/1	Correspondence with some plans all relating to an Improvement Grant for 18 and 19A Smith Terrace and work completed to the properties [1 folder]	1970
SUTH/7/2	Correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's involvement with the Scottish National Party [1 folder]	1972-1973
SUTH/7/3	Folder containing two items of correspondence relating to the demolition of Rosebank House in Wick and some information on John O'Groats Mill [1 folder]	1976-1977
SUTH/7/4	Correspondence including enquiries and letters relating to Wick Harbour and boats and fisherman who worked from there [1 folder]	1983-1984
SUTH/7/5	Folder containing correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's research for his publication 'From Herring to Seine Net Fishing' [1 folder]	1984-1985
SUTH/7/6	Folder containing correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's research for his publication 'From Herring to Seine Net Fishing' [1 folder]	1985
SUTH/7/7	Folder containing local and family history enquiries and Wick Society correspondence [1 folder]	1985-1986
SUTH/7/8	Folder containing local and family history enquiries and Wick Society correspondence [1 folder]	1985-1986
SUTH/7/9	Folder containing correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's publications, with a rough copy of 'Wick Lybster Light Railway' with handwritten corrections	1987

	[1 folder]
SUTH/7/10	Folder containing correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's publications and also some local history enquiries [1 folder]	1987-1988
SUTH/7/11	Folder containing local and family history enquiries and Wick Society correspondence [1 folder]	1988-1990
SUTH/7/12	Correspondence relating to the sale and distribution of Iain Sutherland's published works [1 folder]	1988-2003
SUTH/7/13	Correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's research into agriculture [1 folder]	1990
SUTH/7/14	Folder of correspondence relating to the Frank W. Ritchie Photographic Collection with the proofs of the layout for a book of his photographs [1 folder]	1991
SUTH/7/15	Folder containing correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's publications and also relating to reimbursement of travel and accommodation expenses incurred when travelling to deliver lectures at various institutions [1 folder]	1993-1994
SUTH/7/16	Correspondence relating to the distribution of Iain Sutherland's published works and also relating to local issues, including the pedestrianisation of Wick High Street [1 folder]	1994-1996
SUTH/7/17	Wick Society correspondence [1 folder]	1996
SUTH/7/18	Correspondence mainly relating to the distribution of Iain Sutherland's published works [1 folder]	1996-1997
SUTH/7/19	Wick Society correspondence including letters relating to the pedestrianisation of Wick High Street [1 folder]	1996-1997
SUTH/7/20	Correspondence relating to a visit to Norway for the Pillarguri Festival in his capacity as the Chairman of the Wick Society [1 folder]	1998
SUTH/7/21	Correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's published works and also some local history enquiries [1 folder]	1998-2003
SUTH/7/22	Correspondence including letters relating to Iain's publications, research and the Wick Society [1 folder]	2001-2003
SUTH/7/23	Folding containing correspondence including,	2004-2005

	personal correspondence, some relating to Iain Sutherland's publications and research [1 folder]
SUTH/7/24	Correspondence relating to Iain Sutherland's MBE and also newspaper cutting regarding the same [1 folder]	2006
SUTH/7/25	Correspondence and printed material relating to Iain Sutherland's published works and also a course that he ran for the University of Aberdeen, 'Fishing Industry in Caithness' [1 folder]	2006
SUTH/7/26	Folder containing correspondence relating mainly to Iain Sutherland's publications [1 folder]	2007-2008
SUTH/8	The Wick Society	1980-1998
SUTH/8/1	Legal and administrative papers	1980-1998
SUTH/8/1/1	Notes from a meeting called to 'see if there is any possibility that the organisations of the county may be given a common ground on which they can come together periodically and voice their opinions on matters which are of public concern and interest' and a lease between Caithness County Council and the Wick Society [1 folder]	1988 and lease from 1980
SUTH/8/1/2	'Wick Heritage – old film footage' [1 video tape – currently we have no way of viewing this tape]	c.1990
SUTH/8/1/3	Deed of Trust by The Right Honourable Robin MacDonald Sinclair, Viscount Thurso and others for the Caithness Heritage Trust. This is the deed for the Caithness Heritage Trust which is a charitable trust created to establish a Caithness Museum [1 folder]	3 rd March 1992
SUTH/8/1/4	Newspaper cuttings relating to the Wick Society and some articles and letters written by Iain Sutherland [1 folder]	c.1980-c.1995
SUTH/8/1/5	'An application in the name of the Wick Society as affiliated to the Scottish Circle Trust, to have the area known as lower Pulteneytown classified as a conservation area by the planning authority of the Caithness County Council', account for the Wick Society and the 'Scottish Civic Trust Newsletter' [1 folder]	1997-1998