Administrative history: The Caithness Rural Gaelic Choir started in 1996, when a Mr Raymond Bremner attended the Feis nan Coisir in Lewis and was inspired to contact other like-minded Caithness Gaelic singers and speakers to meet at an informal meeting in the Smiddy Inn in Thrumster. From there it was decided to meet regularly and on the 17th February 1997 a meeting was held at Wick North School, Music Room, where both the name of the choir was formalised as Caithness Gaelic Choir and the first constitution was created, as well as office bearers elected.

The Choir competed in several competitions throughout the years between 1997-2007.
