RECORDS' CONTEXT

Name of creators:	Keiss Primary School
Administrative history:	Keiss Primary School is a rural Primary School in Wick Parish. There are records of schools in this area over two hundred years ago. These early schools were on different sites in Keiss, and in the neighbouring communities of Auckengill and Lyth. The pupils of all of these communities have been progressively drawn under one roof, and the present Keiss Primary School building was opened in August, 1971.
Custodial history:	St John the Evangelist Church in Wick hold regular book sales. Books are donated by members of the public to be sold to raise funds for the church. This CD was donated for a book sale but was deposited in the Caithness Archive by a member of the congregation as it was of local interest.
