RECORDS' CONTEXT

Name of creators:	Forse Estate; Bruce Connolly
Administrative history:	The Sutherlands of Forse were a minor Scottish noble family. They were a cadet branch of the Clan Sutherland. The Sutherland Lairds of Forse were seated at Forse Castle on the east coast of the county of Caithness. They lived there until about the year 1660. They later built a mansion house about a mile inland. This was demolished and replaced with a greater mansion house called 'Forse House' which the Lairds of Forse occupied until 1905 and has since been used as a hotel, nursing home and guest house/café
Custodial history:	Deposited by the family of previous tenants on the estate. The book came into their possession on the closure of the estate office, date unknown
