

You Said, We Did

May 2018

- You said you would like Bookbug sessions to be available in alternative venues. We now offer these in early years settings delivered by our partners
- You said you would like to see Scrabble clubs in libraries. We are rolling these out across the Highlands
- You said you would like to see more visits from Bookbug! Bookbug is available to attend sessions on request
- You said you would like more opportunities to engage with us using social media. We will be setting up Twitter accounts in libraries throughout the year
- You said you would like your local library to be open at different times/days in the week. We have changed opening hours at Glenurquhart, Golspie and Lairg in response to local feedback
