

Two Boys And The Evergreen Forest

May 20th 2013

Dear Diary,

It's my first week in this new house and my neighbour Owen was walking his dog. His dog is called Max. I want to see if Owen wants to be friends with me. Yesterday he helped an old lady cross the road. I start my new school tomorrow. I'll let you know how it goes.

Dear Diary,

My first day of school was amazing. I loved it. Me and Owen are friends and we played tag at breaktime. We ate lunch together. Our teacher Mrs Macdonald said that we'll have a residential trip to the Evergreen Forest. We get to stay in cabins with our friends. It's on June 14th. Almost a month away. I want to go now! I wish it will come sooner. I've lots of school work to do. I'll try to keep you updated.

Dear Diary,

Today I helped an old lady cross the road. My mum always says to me, "What comes around goes around." We have a new neighbour called Evan. I saw him watching me at the zebra crossing with the old lady. I want to be friends with him but I'm scared to ask. School is starting again in 2 days. I hope he will be at school so we can be friends.

Dear Diary,

We started school again today and I'm friends with Evan! The teacher said we're getting to go on a trip to the Evergreen Forest where we get to stay in cabins with our friends. I have lots of work to do so I might not write for a while.

Dear Diary,

I'm so excited for the school trip. We're going tomorrow and I'm sharing a cabin with Owen. We'll be away for 3 days. It's my first time properly away from home. I need to pack now so I'll let you know about the trip.

Dear Diary,

It's our second day at the Evergreen Forest. Evan said to me it was his first time away from home and he felt excited. We're exploring the forest today and last night we sat by the campfire. I'll let you know about the forest.

Dear Diary,

I'm on my way home from the Evergreen Forest. Yesterday me and Evan saw a shiny box. We opened it and there were fortune cookies inside. We took 1 and opened it together. It said "What goes around comes around."
